

Date	December 11, 2023
Name	Vince Turano
Licensure Status at Time of Incident	Unlicensed
Administrative Action	Conviction
Location	Toronto
Regulation Description	1. Operated an electrical contracting business without being the holder of an electrical contractor license, contrary to s.3 of O. Reg. 570/05, and did thereby commit an offence contrary to ss.113.20(1)(a) of the Electricity Act, 1998 Vince Turano was sentenced to a fine of $10,000.
Description of Contravention	Vince Turano (“Turano”) was the sole officer and Director of Turano’s Home Improvement Ltd. (“THI”). In 2019 THI Was contracted to conduct renovations at a residential property located in Burlington, work which was to include electrical work. Afterwards, however, several electrical defects were discovered in the electrical work completed by THI, and the consumer paid an additional $4,500 for the defects to be corrected by a licensed electrical contractor.
Additional Information (if necessary)	Turano and THI were both acquitted of two (2) counts under the Electricity Act, 1998. Those acquittals are under appeal.